

COURT STOPS
A BOYCOTT ON LABOR UNIONS

Omaha Judge Restrains Business Men From Entering Conspiracy Not to Employ Organized Workers.

WAR ON THE STRIKE
SERIOUSLY CHECKED

Defendants Forbidden to Carry Out Any of Their Measures Invented Especially to Kill Unionism.

WHAT THE OMAHA
STRUGGLE MEANS

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
OMAHA, Neb., May 18.—The attention of the industrial world is focused on Omaha.
Here, the first organized attack on what employers term "union labor" is being made, as a part of the plan outlined by the Manufacturers' Association at its annual meeting at New Orleans. Two hundred local employers have joined in the movement.
It is believed by organized labor, and not denied by employers, that the effort here is successful, the attack on unionism will be made in other cities.
The injunction in the district court restraining this attack is the first check to the movement. It, however, is not permanent, and must be fought out on its merits.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
OMAHA, Neb., May 18.—The sweeping injunction of the Federal Court last week in restraint of the use of the boycott by the various labor organizations involved in the local strike, has been outdone by an order issued in the District Court last night on the application of the union men.
The order restrains the business men from refusing to sell goods to dealers who employ union labor, prevents them from boycotting union labor, requires the Business Men's Association to cease holding meetings or conspiring against the unions, or in any way interfering with the unions in the management of their affairs.

The order of the court restrains the Business Men's Association and others named as defendants, as follows:

Must Not Do.

From in any manner threatening to injure the business or person of any employer of members of cross-complaintants' union or member of labor union, or any person who may employ or desire to employ such union men, or from refusing to sell commodities and supplies of merchandise to employers of such union labor, and from discriminating against such persons in the prices charged for any such commodities.

From threatening or intimidating in any manner any person into joining the said Business Men's Association or any organizations to join labor union or to recognize labor unions, and from threatening or intimidating any person who may have become a member of said association or organization, if he employs organized labor or recognizes labor unions, into discontinuing such employment.

From imposing any fines upon its members or any person for violating any agreement not to employ organized labor or not to recognize a labor union.

Must Not.

From receiving or paying out any money whatever in pursuance of any agreement to break up labor unions except attorneys in this action.

From paying or offering any money to officers or members of unions, directly or indirectly, as a bribe to do or not to do any act in pursuance of any agreement or any act of said defendants against such unions.

From importing or engaging agents and servants to import any laborers into the city of Omaha in pursuance of any existing plan to destroy labor organizations, or under any similar or new arrangement or plan.

From bringing any other injunction suits or actions in pursuance of any general plan of persecution to break up labor unions or of any new or similar plans connected directly or indirectly with any existing plans.

Great Northern.

Wants Conductors.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 18.—The state free labor bureau has an order from St. Paul for 100 railroad conductors to run freight and passenger trains on the Great Northern Railroad, but there are no applicants for the positions.

Experience is not necessary, the order says, but capable men are wanted. The salary offered is $140 a month.

$90,000,000 TIED UP
BY LABOR WAR

NEW YORK, May 18.—As a result of the strike between the dealers in building supplies and the members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, the building industry is estimated to have lost $90,000,000 in business.

COLONIAL DAMES
ARE UP IN ARMS

Method of Admitting Members Causes Differences in the Society.

COMMITTEE OF THREE HAS ALL THE POWER

Members Allege That the Committee Has Been Rejecting Eligible Applicants on Grounds Entirely Personal.

At the home of Mrs. Franklin Olin in Alton, Ill., Thursday, will be threshed out a question which is the cause of differences among the members of the Missouri chapter of the Society of Colonial Dames.

It concerns the methods of procedure by which applications for membership are passed upon.

For the past year there have been heartburnings on the part of some of the 40 members of the organization because names of friends of these members have failed to pass the committee of safety, composed of three.

They say they have not been able to learn why.

Objection is accordingly made to this committee having power to reject names without their being submitted to the managing board, as was formerly the case.

Before the committee of safety was, applications for membership came before the officers and managing board, consisting of 12 ladies. Two blackballs would exclude.

A year ago it was discovered that the by-laws provided for a committee of three to consider applications.

The committee was formed, and since that time it has not only been considering applications, but rejecting them, without any submission of the rejected names to the board.

It is now said that this is an excess of authority. The functions of the committee under a correct reading of the by-laws claim some of the constitutional lawyers in the society, extend simply to an examination of the qualifications of applicants for admission. All names should then go before the board for action, they say.

It is charged that the committee has refused admission to applicants qualified in every way, merely on personal grounds.

The position of the committee of safety is that the people may be eligible, but not necessarily admissible. Anyone whose ancestor served the state in either a civil or military capacity during colonial times is eligible, but it does not follow that she is admissible.

The committee considers itself an excellent judge of such matters. It will not give up its veto power without a struggle.

Mrs. Olin's house, before luncheon is served on Thursday, will witness a revolutionary battle between the Colonial Dames.

MORE WEATHER OF SAME SORT

Showers Will Not Yield to Sunshine Before Friday, It Is Predicted.

"Weather Man" Bowie's showers came, as prophesied, and now he promises more. There will be little sun before Friday, it is predicted.

His forecast Wednesday morning was: "Showers tonight, followed by partially cloudy weather Thursday. Slight change in temperature, but no wind shift east to north winds."

Rain, has been pretty general the past 24 hours, Jacksonville, Fla., heading the list with a fall of 4.4 inches.

Southwest Missouri, eastern Kansas and Alabama have joined with Florida in the heavy down-pour, and rain has also fallen over the entire central valley, South Atlantic and Gulf coasts, North Pacific coast, Texas and Oklahoma.

Pueblo, Colo., is the coldest place reported, with a temperature of 32 degrees.

MASHER TRIES NEW GAME

Tries to Fix Mrs. Mary Bligh With Hypnotic Eye—Later He Was "Fixed" in Court.

A new species of "masher" flashed into the light of publicity in Judge Pollard's Second District police court on Wednesday morning, in the person of James T. McCarthy, who hails from Arkansas.

McCarthy amused himself on Tuesday evening at 8:30, by standing on the grass in front of 281 Gamble street and staring through a parlor window, with persistent and admiring gaze, at Mrs. Mary Bligh.

Mrs. Bligh grew restive under the Arkansas hypnotic glances. She called H. C. Vapler, a neighbor, to interrogate the silent watcher.

"Are you looking for anyone?" asked Mr. Vapler.

McCarthy did not deign a reply. He continued staring.

"You get out of here," commanded Vapler.

McCarthy woke to speech. "I won't," said he. "What are you going to do about it?"

"Do!" returned the other. "Have you arrested?"

McCarthy would allow nothing to interrupt him. He was still staring when the policeman arrived.

His duty of purpose soon him to be had an opportunity of trying his new game Judge Pollard Wednesday.

HARNESS COSTS
MORE THAN HORSES

"Farmer" William Scott Buys Team and Trappings for Son-in-Law.

"Farmer" William Scott of New York paid $300 more for a set of harness than for the horses that will wear it, although the horses were the finest that Jersey county, Illinois, could furnish.

Mr. Scott paid $1500 for the team. The harness, which was bought in St. Louis, cost $1500.

Mr. Scott bought the outfit as a present for his son-in-law, who is a banker in Old Mexico, and he shipped horses and harness from Alton Tuesday, the express charges on them being $50.

"Farmer" Scott, who is a prominent figure on Wall street, visits his Illinois home every year and rarely fails to take a team of Jersey county horses home with him. He thinks they are the best to be had.

This year, however, he has broken the rule by sending the animals to Mexico. He bought the team from Edward Meyer, who lives near Mr. Scott's old home in Jersey county.

EDITOR TO GUIDE PRESIDENT

Lafe Young of Des Moines Invited to Meet Roosevelt at the Border of Iowa and Show Him Through.

President Roosevelt lived a busy life during his dedication visit to St. Louis, but he took time to discover which of the many men he met he cared to retain as friends. Among the crowd was Editor Lafe Young of the Des Moines State Capitalist.

Mr. Young was the guest of his son, Capt. Harold Young of the secretary's office of the World's Fair. Mr. Young has received an invitation from the President to meet him on the borders of Iowa and show him through that state.

THE MINTNER FAMILY

SAYS GRANDMOTHER TOOK
EXCEPTION TO STEPMOTHER

Wm. Mintner Alleges Dead Wife's Mother Sent the Children to Children's Society for That Reason, But She Says He Did Not Support Them.

William Mintner of Pierce and Manchester avenues says his wife's mother sent his children to the Children's Home Society because she didn't want them to live with their stepmother, the second Mrs. William Mintner.

The grandmother denies the charge, declaring that she sent the children to the home because their father would not support them.

Judge Blevins of the Circuit Court will decide the question Thursday, when the application of Mintner for the children, G. D. Jameson, Mintner's attorney, filed a declaration to their answer Wednesday, alleging that Mintner sent $35 for the support of the children during the month he was in Arkansas.

A fourth child, younger than the others, and a cripple, was also there, and is still with the grandmother.

The father went to Arkansas with a load of horses, and was gone a month. During his absence he was married to a woman he met in Arkansas, and when he returned she came with him, and they made their home at Pierce and Manchester avenues in St. Louis.

He sent for his children, and was informed that they were in the care of the Children's Home Society at 206 Pine street.

The society and the children's grandmother filed an answer, saying that Mintner had refused to support the children. G. D. Jameson, Mintner's attorney, filed a declaration to their answer Wednesday, alleging that Mintner sent $35 for the support of the children during the month he was in Arkansas.

RIVER MYSTERY A MURDER

Body Bearing Evidence of Assault Identified as That of Carl Hoff, an Upholsterer.

The body of a man taken from the river with wounds on the head indicating murder, has been positively identified as that of Carl Hoff, who until April 4 lived at the home of Mrs. Grammon, 715 Hickory street, and had been employed as an upholsterer by C. J. Kostuba.

The murder theory was strengthened by the finding at the post-mortem that there was no water in his lungs, and he could not have come to his death by drowning.

Mrs. Grammon says that when Hoff left her house he seemed very despondent. He told her that he was out of work and had no money with which to pay his board, and he did not indicate where he was going.

Only 1 cent was found in his pockets and no property of value was found in his room. The police have accepted the murder theory.

Father of Chemistry Praised
Justus von Liebig, father of the modern system of chemical laboratories, was praised by speakers at the banquet given by the St. Louis Chemical Society Tuesday evening at 211 South Fourth street.

The occasion was the 50th anniversary of von Liebig's birth.

CURTIS JETT, ONE OF THE FEUD LEADERS

JACKSON COUNTY COURT HOUSE WHERE SHOOTING TOOK PLACE

EACH CHILD HAD BAKED A LOAF

Forty Took Part in Annual Free School Entertainment.

The annual exhibition of the Free School of the Church of the Messiah took place at the school home, 221 Locust street, Wednesday morning. Forty children, each having baked a loaf of bread, took part in the entertainment.

The cooking class of 12 industrious girls and boys between 8 and 12 years of age, prepared a delightful lunch, each having made a special dish. Carol Smith made rice dumplings; Gladys Demase, broiled steak; Edna Brodier made popovers. John Hop-schmidt, baked potatoes; Herbert Wright made a delightful cup of tea; Elmer Brodier, coffee; Clara Rank, corn bread; George Avery, biscuits; Stella Avery, corn starch mold; Madeline Salter, hash, on toast; Florence Rank, omelette. The three little housekeepers were Anna Jerguson, George Rieger and Rena Baur.

Upon the walls of the large airy work room was hung a beautiful display of basketry, Indian loom and weaving, also iron and other fancy work, which showed a marvelous adaptability for the instruction the little ones had received. The baskets were of every size and shape, and some of the little girls had even made hats of grass and trimmed them. They have also woven small Indian blankets.

The work is directly in charge of Miss Josephine Wolke.

The institution was organized in 1841 as a day school for the children of the poor, whom, for your reasons, were unable to obtain schooling elsewhere. Later a building was purchased and converted into a temporary home for orphan children and children of destitute parents. As such a home and with common branches of education, domestic science and industrial training.

It is now and always has been supported by the members of the Church of the Messiah, and is a valuable institution in its work. No money is received for board of any kind, as only children of the poor are received.

There is a daily average attendance of 100 children. The children are taught the three R's, and the principles of domestic science and industrial training.

Children not otherwise provided for are placed in homes, after careful investigation by the members of the church. The children receive daily instruction in the three R's, and the principles of domestic science and industrial training.

CURTIS JETT
HAS NO FEAR
OF CONVICTION

Preliminary Hearing on the Charge of Assassinating Marcum Postponed by the Winchester Court Until June 4.

IMPORTANT WITNESS
FAILED TO APPEAR

Judge James Hargis Prepares an Affidavit That His Life Would Be in Danger If He Obeyed Summons.

By a Post-Dispatch Staff Correspondent.
WINCHESTER, Ky., May 13.—"If I have to be tried for my life, I want it to be in old Winchester, where Curtis Jett has as many friends as the next man. I don't want to habeas corpus or anything else, but a fair show. Let them go ahead with the show. I'll come clear just as sure as shooting."

Standing in front of the bars of his cell, Curtis Jett, who is accused of the assassination of J. B. Marcum, and incidentally also of the murder of Jim Cockrill and Dr. Cox, talked defiantly this morning.

Jett wore no coat, and his shirt collar was unbuttoned at the top. His red hair seemed more unruly than usual, and the corners of his mouth as he talked were drawn down, adding intensity to the ordinary cruel curl of his thin lips.

Today Jett's case came up before Judge Benton, who postponed the hearing until June 4, and remanded Jett to jail.

The hearing called before Judge Benton here today was originally on a writ of habeas corpus issued out by Attorney Stevenson on behalf of Jett. The writ was withdrawn yesterday, but Judge Benton has decided to have a hearing anyway to decide on what ground Jett is restrained of his liberty.

Hargis fears.

For His Life.

The witnesses summoned to appear here today numbered nearly a score of persons, all in some way connected with the Cockrill-Hargis-Marcum feud.

The only ones who came were R. J. Benton, W. J. Combs, County Attorney W. H. Blanton, John Patrick and E. M. Noble. Judge James Hargis did not come. He is preparing an affidavit that his life would be in danger if he came.

Judge Benton decided that the hearing could not be impartial unless all the important witnesses were present. He especially wants the testimony of J. C. Back, who has gone to California.

It was predicted that Benton would not appear at the trial today, but he was on hand.

Benton is generally regarded as the man whose assassination is to follow Marcum's. It was reported Sunday he was killed, but Benton himself told the Post-Dispatch he had not been shot at yet, and the emphasis on the word "yet" gave his words significance. Benton, under the promise of absolute secrecy for the present, told a newspaper correspondent that he saw Curtis Jett shoot Marcum.

In saying that Benton merely told everybody in Jackson knew, because in the excitement which immediately followed the killing Benton told a number of persons the same thing, and they repeated it. Since then Benton had been warned to make no formal statement, so when faith was broken and his interview published as became a marked man.

The feud feeling is so intense and the situation so dangerous in the face of the three assassinations just reported that the people will not testify to the killing. They tell one story in Winchester, and an entirely different story in Jackson.

Witnesses Have Changed Their Stories.

Already several have made affidavits denying statements attributed to them. Today William M. Combs—who was in the office of Judge J. J. C. Black, the attorney who came here Saturday night on his way to California and caused Tom Cockrill to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Curtis Jett, saying that Jett and Benton were in the office of Jett, no jury could fail to convict. It was that Judge Black himself was in his office in such a position that he was unable to testify to the movements of Jett, but Jett also was named as one of the men who witnessed the movements of Jett, and says he did not know he was within 10 miles of the courthouse.

A conference of the Cockrill forces took place today in the office of Sam Jett, an uncle of Curtis Jett, the prisoner, and of the Cockrill boys. Jett says he will spend considerable money in the conviction of the men who murdered Jim Cockrill, Dr. Cox and Jim Marcum, and he proposes to fight the legal battle to a finish. The men are wealthy and will be forced to a head to the fight, but Jett also has plenty of money. McKinley Cockrill, a brother of the man who murdered Jim Cockrill, Dr. Cox and Jim Marcum, and he proposes to fight the legal battle to a finish. The men are wealthy and will be forced to a head to the fight, but Jett also has plenty of money.

Three-Time Elopers Unwed

Parents Had Nothing to Do With Repeated Failures of a Bashful Pair.

Three elopements and not married is the record of Charles F. Williamson of 123 North Sixteenth street, and Miss Annie Page of 1811 Cass avenue.

Another strange feature of the case is that none of the failures were caused by the interference of angry parents. The first elopement was due to the bashfulness of the couple. The second was due to the fact that the couple were not ready for marriage. The third was due to the fact that the couple were not ready for marriage.

Death Under a Landslide

Press Brick Workman Fatally Crushed in Presence of Fellow Laborers.

Isaac Upshaw, aged 33, of 118 Manchester avenue, was smothered to death by being caught under a landslide of a brick wall at the plant of the Hixson Brick Co. on Monday.

Upshaw was near the top of the brick wall when the landslide occurred. He was unable to get out of the way in time. He was found by fellow workers who rushed to his aid. He was taken to the hospital, but he died before he could be revived.

The brick wall was being built for the Hixson Brick Co. It was about 10 feet high and 10 feet wide. It was made of red brick and was being built on a soft foundation. The landslide occurred when the brick wall was about halfway through.

The Hixson Brick Co. is one of the largest brick companies in St. Louis. It has been in business for over 50 years. It has a reputation for producing high quality bricks. The company is located in the heart of the city. It has a large workforce and a long history of service to the community.

The conductor explained to the passengers that for the company to have to pay for the slaughter of a sow and several pigs would probably bankrupt the corporation and throw him out of a job.

TOZIER SIGNS WITH BUTTE CLUB

Crack St. Louis All-Round Athlete
Enters Professional Baseball Lists.

Billy Tozier, one of the best known all-around athletes in St. Louis, has signed to play for the Butte club of the Pacific Northwest league. He starts for Montana Wednesday night.

Billy Kane, another St. Louis boy, is manager of the Butte team this season. His club is a first-class aggregation, but Kane found himself short of pitchers and wired Tozier, who has already turned down several good league offers.

Kane's offer was a liberal one and Tozier wired his acceptance Tuesday. He will receive a good salary in the west and a chance to perform in a good league. The Butte team won the pennant last year.

Tozier is not only a pitcher, but a good football and hockey player as well. He was a member of the World's Fair hockey team last winter and had the reputation of being one of the best goal keepers in the West. He played football and baseball at Christian Brothers College.

There are now three St. Louis boys on the Butte team. Kane is the captain and shortstop, Hugh McMilligan, a brother of the Hibernian baseball poet of St. Louis, is filling a utility role.

Tozier is scarcely three years of age, but he is a splendidly built young athlete. He uses plenty of speed in pitching and is a clever curve artist, capable of being a strong point. He was considered one of the best youngsters around St. Louis. Manager Kane of the Browns made Tozier an offer this spring, but the deal fell through.

RECORDS BOW

High Team Total and High Individual Total of Present Contest Broken Tuesday Night.

Records for the present cocked-hat tournament were broken twice in cocked-hat matches Tuesday night. The St. Louis five first turned the trick in their contest with the Mound City aggregation, when it finished with a total of 133 for the five games. In turn the Office Men, on the fast Acme alleys, broke this mark and set a new one of 120.

The Mound City made the Centrales move very fast to win the odd game of their engagement. At the end of the third contest the score stood 2 to 1 for the Mound City tribe.

Held for the winners was the high man with a 33 average. Leftfield, 51-5, was the next high man. Miller, Grath, Becker and Weselos were all in form.

The losing aggregation rolled a 51-25 team average.

The Juniors were put up to a tie with the St. Louis five for first place in the tournament race by defeating the Myer Brothers team 4 of 5 games. They did not have to work very hard at that, although the aggregation rolled a 33 team average against 48 and a fraction for the enemy.

David was the only Myer Brothers roller to move fast. He rolled a 33 team average. Miller's 67 was the best mark for the winners.

In the record smashing match between the Office Men and the North Ends, the latter were able to win but one of the five games. This victory, however, still leaves

R IN TOURNAMENT

THURSDAY'S COCKED-HAT TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE.

No games will be played by tournament teams Wednesday night. The next match contests will take place Thursday as follows:

Merchants vs. Kludgerstrasse. Royal alleys.

Centrales vs. Mound City. Royal alleys.

Haupt vs. North Ends. Acme alleys.

The Office Men will down in the second division of the race.

It is thought that by next week the real contenders for the championship will begin to stir themselves.

The final race will probably be between the St. Louis Juniors, Central and Merchants aggregations.

The 34 2-5 average for the Office Men, Tuesday night, sets a new record for individual marks. He was well supported, only one man of the five dropping below 30 average. Oberbeck led for the losers, with 34 as his average.

Local College Nine Unable to Cope
With Great Pitching of Visit-

Washington University's baseball team proved a shining mark for the Nebraska University diamond artists in their battle Tuesday afternoon at Pastime park.

Sixteen safeties of Washington's pitcher, Baylor, and seven errors by the Washington players, explain the defeat by a score of 15 to 5. Nebraska was not so remarkable in the field, but Leagoner and Hood, who did the twirling for the visitors, were too much for the myrtle and maroon batters.

Sears Leagoner, at shortstop, had a bad two hours. Of the seven misplays made by his side, five were credited to him. At the bat, however, he secured two of the seven safeties made by the club.

Wood Workers On Strike.

Expert workmen in the East St. Louis wood working mills have struck for an increase from $1.50 to $2 a day. The men have charge of the small range of men in the mills, where saws, windows, doors and other building fittings are made. The helpers have not struck. The strike threatens to tie up building operations on the East Side.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair. No matter what color the hair, the finest contour of a female face, even something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Soft and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Fowler's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and cures dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Des Moines, Iowa & T. H. Co., Baltimore, Md.
